

CYBER EDUCATION FOR ALL

Brookings - Flandreau - Harrisburg - Howard - Madison - Sioux Falls - Tri-Valley

Cyber Education 4 All

Dakota State University has been awarded a grant to work with 22 teachers to help integrate cyber education into South Dakota schools and create pathways to career opportunities in cybersecurity.

Contact information

Dr. Kevin Smith

kevin.smith@dsu.edu

Mr. Dan Klumper

daniel.klumper@dsu.edu

Mr. Rob Honomichl

rob.honomichl@dsu.edu

DSU
DAKOTA STATE

NICE
NATIONAL INITIATIVE FOR CYBERSECURITY EDUCATION

CE4A Participant Expectations

- Participate in a 1 credit course from January 8, 2018 - May 4, 2018. Graduate credit for this course will be available through DSU

- Participate in a 1 week training at DSU to be held June 4-8. 3 graduate credits will be available through DSU.

- Participate in a 1 week GenCyber Student Camp. High School Coed Camp will be June 18 - 22 and Middle School Girl's Camp will be June 25 - 29. 1 graduate credit will be available through DSU.

- Help with the creation of curriculum and develop standards.

- Have a better understanding of CTE, Cybersecurity, NICE Framework, Cybersecurity Careers

- Integrate cybersecurity modules or development of courses in cybersecurity at your school.

Optional Opportunities

- Attend the GenCyber Teacher Camp - June 11 - 15. 3 Graduate credits will be available through DSU.

Attend a Spring Cybersecurity Showcase at DSU.

Participant Compensation

$4000 Stipend to be paid in June 2018.

- Curriculum Materials to integrate into your classroom.

- Hardware to help integrate into your classroom.

Graduate credit for activities is pending board approval and will be available at the reduced rate of $40. You do not need to take any of the activities for graduate credit to be a part of the pilot.

All GenCyber camps are pending until final funding is approved by the NSA and NSF.